I apologize for the delayed response on this. I have discussed this matter with a supervisor and it was agreed that we not oppose the request for early termination with the understanding that he is still required to make his monthly restitution/fines according to his judgment and commitment order which is 15% of his gross monthly income. Based on this email I am assuming that you will be writing to the court to petition for early term.

Subject: Nicholas Mitsakos early termination of supervised release

Mr. Landeros,

I am an attorney representing Nicholas Mitsakos, who you are currently supervising. We plan to file a motion for early termination of supervised release and was wondering if the U.S. Probation will support or oppose his early release?

Thank you,

Shon
